After starting out in the vibrant Dublin Ballad Scene, Brendan moved to Canada in 1979. He made his mark in Montreal where he was the house performer for 14 years at the Old Dublin Pub.

His song-writing skills denote a deep sensitivity & gift for story telling.

“North of the Rio Grande” was published in a Norwegian textbook

& “Far from their Home is in the National Archives of Ireland
& the Ntl. Library of Canada.

Brendan has eight albums to his credit & McGee's audience is lucky to have him stop by once again on his 2017 pub tour.
